EUROPEAN COMMISSION TRAINEES
JOB FAIR

Charlemagne
Alcide de Gasperi
Conference room

Friday
June 28\textsuperscript{th}
10.00h
18.00h

An all day event with employers from various sectors, panel discussions, presentations and a networking drinks reception.
Welcome to the Summer Traineeship 2013 Job Fair!

The Job Fair, traditionally the biggest event organised by the European Commission trainees, is taking place on Friday June 28th in the ‘Charlemagne’ building of the European Commission.

It offers you the chance to meet a range of organisations from different areas and to find out about their positions and recruitment procedures. During this all-day event, use your time to talk with potential employers, attend inspiring Workshops and gather first-hand information from individual presentations. Find out what competences and skills they are looking for and learn more about their day-to-day work environment.

The CAREERS Sub-Committee has been preparing the Job Fair for the last four months. We’re hoping to present you with a valuable experience as part of the traineeship. Have a look at the Schedule to find out more.

We thank all participating organisations for their availability and we are particularly grateful to the Traineeship Office for supporting us with the necessary funding for this event!

Enjoy the Job Fair and good luck!

Using social networking to find a job

17:00 – 17:30

By Truus Heremans, online marketing and social media consultant with the Reference/ Emakina

Social media is a key player in the job search process today. Social networking sites such as LinkedIn and Twitter allow the employer to discover who you are beyond your resume, cover letter, or interview - but they also offer job seekers an opportunity to learn more about specific companies they are interested in, to connect with other employees at those companies, and stay posted on the latest job openings. Truus Heremans is an expert in using social media in a business context and will talk about how to use it to further your career. She is an Online Marketing Consultant at The Reference/Emakina with a great deal of experience in social media strategy and creative digital campaigns. She previously worked in the UK as a Social Search specialist.
